

Annual Report Sharon - St. John Choir
Sharon St. John choir was organized on February 13, 1935 with the following officers -

Honorary President - Mr. J. W. Henderson.

President - Mrs. Keith Zuelton.

Vice-President - Mr. Andrew Draser

Secretary - Miss Blainetta Bruce

Treasurer - Mrs. S. A. MacIntosh

Librarian - Mr. Bert Vequhart

Organist and Choir Director - Mr. C. L. Gates.

There are fifty members with an average attendance of twenty-five.

In March a St. Patrick's Musicales and Tea was held in the hall. It was well patronized by the public and a good sum was realized.

The beautiful cantata "From Olivet to Calvary" was rendered on Good Friday evening under the capable direction of Mr. Gates. It was a decided success and a fitting way to celebrate that day.

In September Rev. Stephen Haboush presented a very instructive illustrated travogue under the auspices of the choir. It was very much enjoyed by a large audience.

We are grateful to Mr. & Mrs. Parker for entertaining us at our Annual Meeting in 1935, and to Mr. & Mrs. Daniel Morsey for a very enjoyable evening spent at their summer home last fall.

The organ now being paid the choir is looking forward to undertaking a new project for 1936.

Blainetta M. Bruce, Secretary.
